

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: September 11, 2015
CONTACT: Joe Hengemuehler, 623-930-2958, Public Information Office

CITY OF GLENDALÉ TV STATION RECOGNIZED WITH TWO EMMY NOMINATIONS Glendale 11 Coverage Showcases City's Hosting of Super Bowl 49

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. -- Glendale 11 TV has been nominated for two Rocky Mountain Region Emmy Awards for its coverage of Super Bowl 49, held at University of Phoenix Stadium in February.

The city's Emmy-award winning broadcast team is nominated in two different categories; Politics/Government News Series for its entry called "Glendale's Got Game Composite" as well as Special Event Coverage (other than News or Sports)-Live or Edited for its entry called "Glendale's Got Game: Super Bowl 49." In a unique relationship, Glendale's Super Bowl preparedness stories also aired on 3TV and CBS5. The city had a similar partnership with CBS5 during the lead-up to the 2008 Super Bowl, also held in Glendale.

The Rocky Mountain Emmy is the industry's most prestigious award, recognizing and rewarding excellence in television broadcasting among broadcast professionals from 5 states in the region. "These nominations reflect the high quality production work of the Glendale 11 staff, which is what our residents and visitors deserve", said Laurie Sapp, Glendale Assistant Communications Director. "The success of Super Bowl 49 was truly a team effort among all city employees, and a wonderful way to showcase what Glendale has to offer."

Winners of this year's Emmy Awards will be announced at a ceremony taking place Oct. 17 at Talking Stick Resort in Scottsdale.

Glendale 11 can be seen 24 hours a day on Cox Channel 11 and the city's website.

###